

Main Idea and Supporting Details

Using the information that you included in this organizer, write a thesis statement that indicates what your main point is and the way that you will support your main point.
